

Archives Achievement Award Nomination Form

Each year the Association of St. Louis Area Archivists (ASLAA) recognizes a member of the archives and history community in St. Louis by presenting them with the ASLAA Archives Achievement Award. The award is presented to an individual who has greatly contributed to the promotion, collection, and use of archival material in the St. Louis area through the years or in a particularly significant way. Individuals recognized need not be a member of ASLAA.

For past awardees, see <https://www.stlarchivists.org/award.html>
The deadline for nominations is July 31.
